Whether you're doing ENG work and need a prompter that works quickly with a tablet, or your are working in a studio or a speech setting where screen size and clarity are high priorities, there is an easy teleprompter for your application. It is a highly flexible on-the-go prompting solution for corporate meetings, instructional videos, seminars or advertisements. This unique LCD mounting system allows the display to be placed at floor level for the least noticeable appearance. The display can also be raised halfway up the stand and hidden with the included skirting.
